Welcome to Week 8. As the term and the year draws ever closer students and staff are now in the process of finishing learning activities and assessments whilst reflecting on the year and what has been achieved throughout the year.

Yesterday the students and staff from Tambar Springs Public School visited our school to take part in the School Christmas Service. It was great to see small schools working together to provide opportunities for all students.

Last night in the P&C meeting I announced the class structures for 2019 which are as follows.

- Mrs Lush will be teaching K – 2
- Ms Short will be on Years 3 – 4
- Ms Birkett and Mr Carter will be teaching Years 5 – 6. (Mr Carter on Mondays and Tuesday, with Ms Birkett Wednesday – Friday)

If you have any questions relating to the school organisation for 2019, please feel free to contact me through the school.

I look forward to seeing you all at the Carols in the Park on Friday night.

Enjoy the week ahead.
